Christmas Chocolate Cake Recipe

This is pet dog Barry's favourite Christmas cake, and the recipe comes from the grandmother of his "boss". I hope it will also taste you.

Utensils required

Mixing bowl, wooden spoon, silver paper, Christmas decorations.

Ingredients

250 g sugar, 100 g powdered chocolate, 100 g "bolachas Maria" (Portuguese biscuit) or any other biscuit, for example "De Beukelaer", 50 g butter, 1 egg

For the topping

. chocolate paste "Tulicreme", "Nutella" or any home-made chocolate paste

Preparation

- 1 – Beat the egg, the sugar and the butter together.
  - 2 – Add the powdered chocolate to the mixture and beat again.
  - 3 – Add the biscuit in small pieces and mix again all the ingredients.
- Handy Hint: you may use your fingertips.
- 4 – Cover a rectangular serving plate with silver paper and pour in the mixture.
  - 5 – Give the mixture the form of a log and cut the two ends for a better presentation.
  - 6 – Cover with the chocolate paste, and using a fork imitate the wood veins.
  - 7 – Decorate with coloured balls and other Christmas ornaments.
  - 8 – Put in the refrigerator until serving time.

Enjoy your Christmas Cake!

FATHER CHRISTMAS MASK

Material required per mask

1. one A4 white (or colour) cardboard sheet
2. one stick of white glue
3. a pair of scissors
4. a thin rubber band
5. colour pencils
6. white cotton wool for the beard

Instructions

1. Print the drawing on the A4 white cardboard sheet and paint it with the colour pencils.
2. Scissor the mask with the pair of scissors. Don't forget to cut the holes for the eyes.
3. Glue the cotton wool so as to look like Father Christmas beard.
4. Make a hole on each black spot, pass the rubber band through them and make a knot at each end to avoid the rubber band to get loose.

Be careful with the scissors, so that nobody gets hurt.

Well, your mask is ready and you may now like to play Saint Nicholas and distribute the presents on Christmas Eve!

Or you may like to get your boy and girl friends' help to play the very cute season's play FATHER CHRISTMAS HAS THE FLU.

Go and get the missing masks at the Christmas version of pet dog Barry's website www.barry4kids.net, where you also find a few season's ornaments and a lot more Christmas activities you may like to do.
