

Worksheet about An Eel in the Aquarium

As the eel was bought in a fish market, I invite you to make the following homework, which refers to products and the merchants who sell them in a (super)market or in a similar shopping place.

You may print the worksheet.

Questions: (use only small letters in your replies)

1. It is the who kneads the dough for the bread.
2. But it is the who makes the cakes.
3. Where did the author's mother buy the eels? At the market.
4. Where do we buy vegetables? At the stall.
5. What is the general name given to turkeys, ducks, pheasants and other domestic fowls?
.
6. Who sells coffee, tinned sardines, cheese, biscuits and other kinds of goods? The .
7. Where do you buy dahlias and carnations? At the shop.
8. If you need stamps, where do you go? To the .
9. What is the name of the person who sharpens scissors and kitchen knives? .
10. The person who cuts up the meat is the .
11. The is the shop where medicines are sold.
12. But the shop that sells perfumes is the .

